Dedication: To the Class of '77

A DREAM TO EMBRACE

We, the class of 1977, have a dream to embrace
We have a duty to perform and a goal to reach
We have a performance to be played and a road to travel
We, as a student body have a promise to fulfill.

We, the class of 1977, owe it to ourselves to continue
We must continue to strive for the ultimate
We must continue to reach the unreachable
We must continue to learn, what is yet unlearned.

We, the class of 1977, have an obligation to fulfill
We owe it to ourselves to respect ourselves
We owe it to ourselves to be ourselves and we owe it to ourselves to find our true selves.

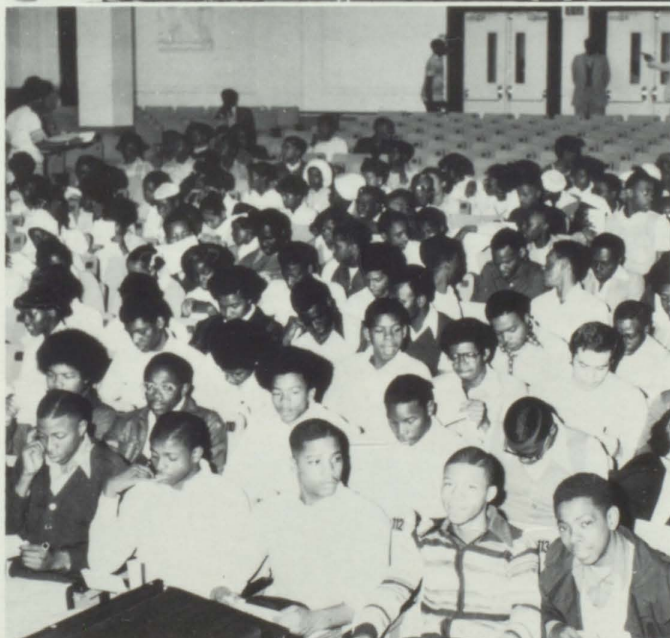

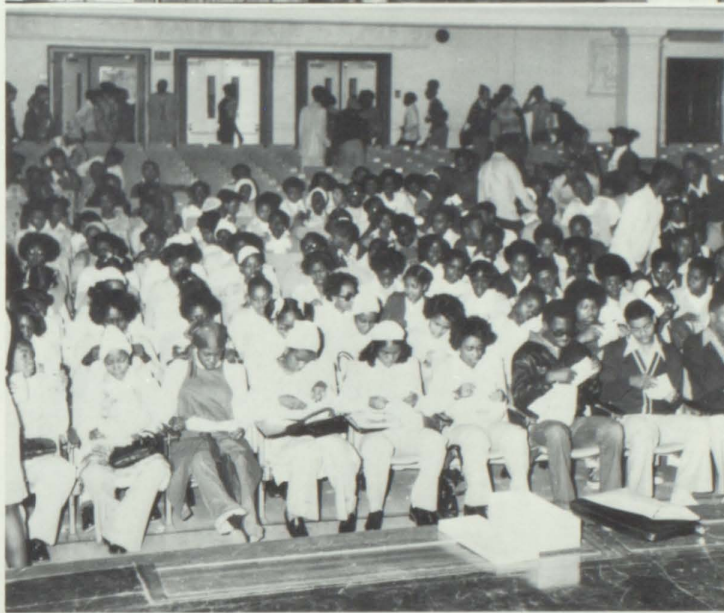

We, the graduating class of 1977 have a life to give
We have taken this life from experiences of education
We have taken this life from family and friends and we, shall give full life to everyone.

We, the alumni of Central High School shall never forget our goal to be number one and our continuing effort to serve one another
We, the class of 1977, have a dream to embrace.

Meetings were essential to get it together

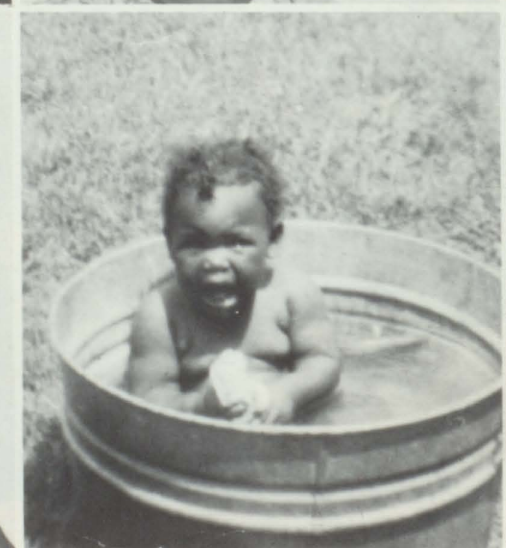

Into the Action in '77

Who Are You?

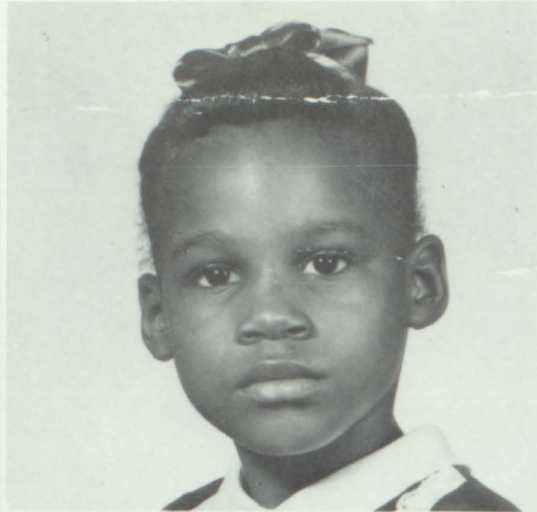

A face. A name. A voice. Do other people really know who I am? To my parents, I am still a child. To my teachers, I am - well - a problem, challenge, a question mark, a grade, sometimes hope, and sometimes trouble. I am parts of many people. A teenager. But mostly adult and (I admit it) part child. Pieces of a puzzle that, I sometimes think, will never fit together

A face . . .

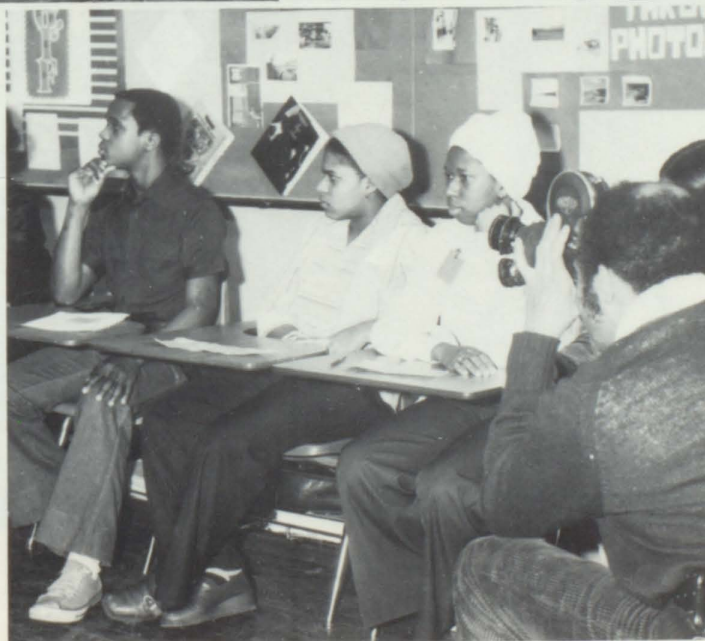

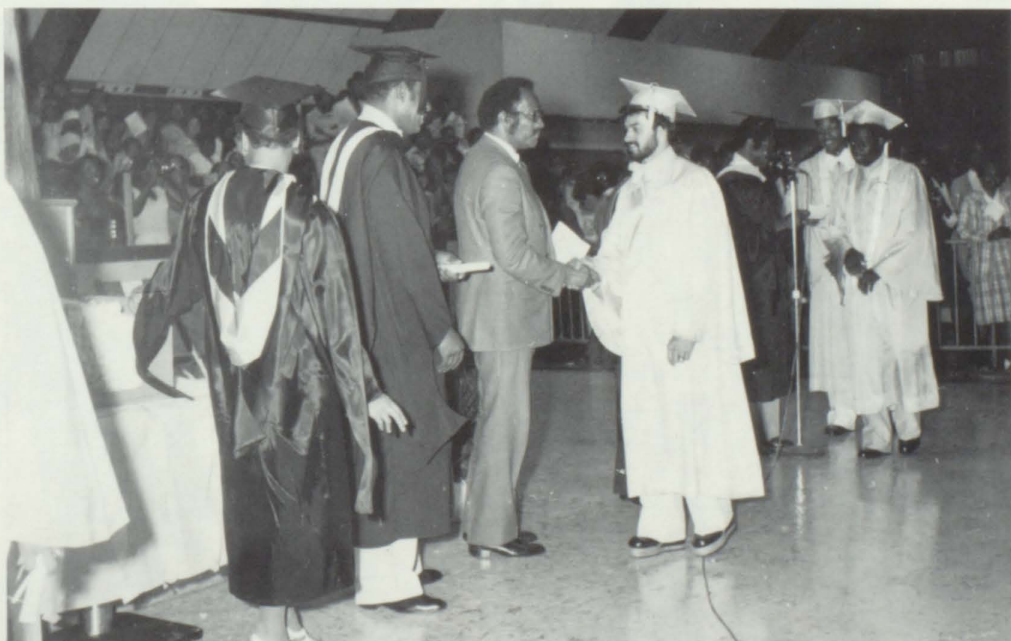

A teenager . . .

Who's Who?

Patience and perseverance are qualities that appear in great men and women. With them the impossible can be realized. Although we have had many unfortunate situations, class of '77 I AM PROUD OF YOU. Congratulations, your impossibility is now a reality.

Sincerely,
Mrs. A. Lampley
Senior Class Advisor

Mrs. Yates joins with others in congratulating you on this memorable occasion. Your Yearbook reflects the many activities and experiences you have been a part of during your stay here at Central High.

It is hoped that the pages of this book will provide a vivid account of your high school years. The staff has endeavored to capture the social, cultural and academic spirit that one encounters here and preserve it in the '77 COG AND PEN.

A yearbook in the making requires patience, cooperation and courage to meet the deadlines for publication. It was not always peaches and cream, but we made it.

ENJOY IT!!

Mrs. G. Yates
Yearbook Advisor

A special thanks to Mr. L. Allen the photographer for the Glamour Photographers Studio. A lot of time and patience was required to capture the beauty of the subject, you were quite successful in doing so. The senior class extends a hearty thank you.

Then paused and said,

Someone to laugh and dance and sing
To walk in the woods and gather flowers,
To commune with nature in quiet hours."

So God made little girls -

SERGEANT AL HUGHES IS A TOP SALESMAN.
He believes in what he has to sell.

The U.S. Army is a way of life that includes the chance to travel, to prove yourself, to further your education, to learn new skills. Soldiers get free medical and dental care, 30 days paid vacation a year, free room and board and more.

You can even enlist in the Army now and delay reporting for active duty for up to a year.

If you're 17-34 and if you can qualify for any of the hundreds of job skills today's Army needs, call AL. See for yourself why he is a proud member of a proud organization. Find out how you can be too.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF '77

As this academic year fades away, it is imperative that you realize that this is not the conclusion of your struggle, merely the beginning; that this is not the final payment on your contribution to the world, only a minute part; that this is only one of your "Worlds to Conquer," there are many others.
